

MAT 127 Syllabus Spring 2014

The textbook we will use is

Single Variable Calculus (Stony Brook University 4th Edition)
by James Stewart,

The course grade will be determined by 30% Midterm I; 30% Midterm II; and 40% Final. Midterms will be given at evening scheduled times at 8:45 PM on Tuesday Feb. 25 and Tuesday April 8. There will be NO MAKE-UP EXAMS. The Final will be Wednesday May 14 from 11:45 AM to 1:45 PM.

The first Midterm will cover Chapter 8 Sections 1 through 4.

The second Midterm will cover Chapter 8.

The final will cover the material in the first two parts of the course as well as Chapter 7 and a section on second order linear equations. A separate set of notes will be available for this last topic, which is not in your text.

Homework will be assigned in lecture.

Grading is not based on a curve. I will be very happy to assign all A's if you all earn A grades. However, if you all do poorly I will not hesitate to assign all poor grades. This is not a competition. I hope you all do well.

If you have a physical, psychological, medical or learning disability that may impact your course work, please contact Disability Support Services, ECC (Educational Communications Center) Building, room128, (631) 632-6748. They will determine with you what accommodations, if any, are necessary and appropriate. All information and documentation is confidential.

Each student must pursue his or her academic goals honestly and be personally accountable for all submitted work. Representing another person's work as your own is always wrong. Faculty are required to report any suspected instances of academic dishonesty to the Academic Judiciary. Faculty in the Health Sciences Center (School of Health Technology & Management, Nursing, Social Welfare, Dental Medicine) and School of Medicine are required to follow their school-specific procedures. For more comprehensive information on academic integrity, including categories of academic dishonesty, please refer to the academic judiciary website at <http://www.stonybrook.edu/uaa/academicjudiciary/>

Stony Brook University expects students to respect the rights, privileges, and property of other people. Faculty are required to report to the Office of Judicial Affairs any disruptive behavior that interrupts their ability to teach, compromises the safety of the learning environment, or inhibits students' ability to learn. Faculty in the HSC Schools and the School of Medicine are required to follow their school-specific procedures.