Probability and Combinatorics

Problem

Let A and B denote two events with the following probabilites:

$$P(A) = .15$$
$$P(B) = .20$$

Is $P(A \cup B) = .35$?

(a) Yes
(b) No
(c) Sometimes

Answer: Sometimes. This depends on the value of the intersection; have students investigate.